

Activities

We offer a variety of outdoor activities which include (but are not limited to) plant identification, plant identification, animal identification, birding, archery, firearm safety (older students), survival skills, campfire cooking, campfire stories, tent building, shelter building, canoeing, kayaking, food preparation, gardening, bee keeping, hiking, fishing, and biology. Our classical Christian education includes writing through the Institute for Excellence (IEW) in Writing, History, and Science through Answers in Genesis.